

A festive party scene with people in costumes and champagne. A woman in a straw hat and pink sunglasses is laughing and holding a champagne glass. A man in a red hat and yellow sunglasses is smiling and holding a champagne glass. Another man in a vest is visible in the background. The background is decorated with gold tinsel and stars.

It's not too late to get spooked!

QUEEN ELIZABETH II

1926 - 2022

A REMARKABLE REIGN

by Nichola Clydesdale

Having reigned for 70 years and 7 months, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II became not only the longest serving British monarch, but the longest verified reign of any serving sovereign in history.

Her passing at the beginning of September coincided with Britain having a new Prime Minister, when Liz Truss became her 15th PM during her truly remarkable reign. Aged 96, the Queen was still working just two days before she died, and we could all learn a lot from her selfless tenacity.

God rest in peace Your Majesty.

“Whatever life throws at us, our individual responses will be all the stronger for working together and sharing the load.”

PARTY SEASON IS FAST APPROACHING!

by Nichola Clydesdale

Along with a record number of bookings for our fabulous Santa's, and an equally impressive record number of bookings at this point in the year for our seasonal characters too, Envisage Promotions has certainly been feeling festive!

But, Christmas isn't just about children having fun! It's a time when employers can thank their teams for the past years efforts at the all important Christmas party!

Behind the scenes at many of these venues, the hospitality sector is full steam ahead, recruiting for the upcoming festivities to ensure that everyone's Christmas party will be the best it possibly can be! However, with the hospitality industry still struggling to recruit reliable staff, that's where we can help! Our network of over 30,000 premium calibre hospitality staff allows us to not only provide you with quality temporary staff, but we will always endeavour to appoint staff close to your proximity to minimise travelling expenses.

DON'T DESPAIR... IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO GET SPOOKED THIS HALLOWEEN!

by Nichola Clydesdale

Scary but true, it's fair to say that Envisage Promotions has literally helped thousands of businesses over the years!

From marshals to ensure there's no car park chaos or queue jumping, to hospitality staff for every type of party and event, many of our jobs simply involve providing temporary staff so that everything runs smoothly!

We even have staff who specialise in public speaking, who can deliver training sessions or present at events and a team of actors who aren't scared at the thought of dressing up for a zombie apocalypse! In fact, you might say they get a thrill from delivering a blood curdling chill and together with their screams, are sure to deliver a spooky experience!

It's never too late to book a costume character, whether it's for Halloween and beyond, as with over 30,000 staff on our books, we can always help, no matter how last minute!

NICHOLA'S TOP TIPS FOR CREATIVE AND SUCCESSFUL EVENT MANAGEMENT

Know your audience

- A younger audience attending a Halloween event will most likely want to be somewhat frightened, but there's a distinct difference between being scared and having unhappy parents because their children now can't sleep at night!

Set a budget

- Having a small budget doesn't mean you can't be creative! In fact, Halloween is one of the only times in the year when a stained outfit or a ripped costume is acceptable, and the same goes for the decorations too!

Be creative with your activities

- Competitions always attract large numbers of people. A giveaway of free tickets to your Halloween event is not only a great way of generating good publicity but if you encourage people to share the giveaway on social media too, the word is sure to spread twice as fast and all for the price of the ticket entry!

MEET THE TEAM : CORRYN STRICKLAND

Every month the internal team at Envisage HQ gets bigger and bigger, so to ensure you can put a familiar face to the name, we like to focus on a member of staff.

This month it's the turn of our Business Administration Manager, 'Corryn Strickland' who cites herself as a 'G&T' cat loving individual who thrives on getting through her daily 'to do' list.

WE'VE GONE INTERNATIONAL!

Whilst Envisage Promotions is no stranger to supplying temporary staff abroad, the last couple of years have made helping our international clients a little tricky!

However, we've been working hard behind the scenes to re-engage with our foreign customers and over the past few months, a number of our jobs have included providing temporary staff in both France and Germany, and we hope to re-visit even more international clients in both Europe and further afield!
